

4 Security and International Studies

Category	Elective or Core	Course No.	Course Name	Instructor	Term	Credit
I Theoretical courses	Elective	GOV620E	International Relations	Tsunekawa	Fall	2	14
		GOV221E	International Political Economy	Tadokoro	Spring	2
		GOV622E	Advanced Security Studies	Michishita	Winter	2
		GOV231E	Comparative Politics	Takenaka	Fall	2
II Regional courses	Elective	GOV640E	International Relations in East Asia	Shiraishi	Spring	2
		GOV641E	European International Relations	Iwama	Spring	2
		GOV643E	American Foreign Policy	TBA	TBA	2
		GOV225E	Chinese Foreign Policy	TBA	TBA	2
III Policy courses	Elective	GOV661E	International Situation and Japanese National Security Policy	Ota	Spring	2
		GOV321E	Japan's Strategic Environment: Historical Perspective	Oshima	Winter	2
IV General Subjects	Elective	Courses unlisted in this table, admitted by the Program Committee.
V Paper Writing	Core	GOV700E	Security and International Studies Dissertation Seminar	Iwama/ Michishita	Spring

Notes

- This chart is aimed at students enrolled for the Ph.D. program in Security and International Studies.
- Prerequisites for taking these courses
 Must fulfill conditions 1 and 2, pass the QE as well as the second semester with a total of 14 credits or more, pass the final thesis evaluation.
  - Category I - Category IV 14 credits or more
  - Category V Pass
- Courses may be added to or modified midway through the year.
- If both the English and Japanese versions of courses offering the same content are attended, only one of them will be counted for credits required for completion.