

Oktay KURTULUS (Turkey)

Dissertation Topic

TBD

Research Interests

Japanese diplomatic history, Occupation of Japan, International relations theories, international politics

e-mail:doc17011@grips.ac.jp

Publications:

“Which Factors Created the Impetus for Economic Recovery in Occupied Japan? Focusing on the Effects of Economic Distress and American Pressure Groups,” Chuo University Bulletin of Graduate Studies, No.46 (Feb. 2017): 491-527.

“Japan Under Occupation, 1945-1952: Structure of the Occupation, Reform Policies, and Reverse Course,” Chuo University Bulletin of Graduate Studies, No.45 (Feb. 2016): 35-54.

Presentations:

July 2016, Tokyo (Japan) – Presentation at Japan Association of International Relations / Regional-Graduate Students Study Group Overseas Seminar

Title: “Entrenchment of the Idea of Economic Recovery for Occupied Japan”

Education

MA in Political Science, Chuo University Graduate School of Law, Tokyo (JAPAN)

BA in International Relations, Ankara University, Political Science Faculty, Ankara (Turkey)

Awards

Honor Student, Ankara University

ERASMUS scholarship (September 2011 – February 2012), International Relations, AHE w Lodzi (Poland)

Graduated as the representative for the Graduate School of Law, Chuo University

MEXT scholarship (April 2013 – March 2020)

Languages

Turkish (native), English (fluent), Japanese (fluent), German (basic)

Linkedin: www.linkedin.com/in/doc17011