● EBSCOhost is a very useful database to search for various kinds of materials. EBSCOhost allows you to search several databases in a single interface. Available databases at GRIPS are:

- ◆ Academic Search Premier : a multidisciplinary database
- ◆ Econlit : economics-specialized database
- ◆ eBook Collection : provides full texts of electronic books

● The instructor is invited from the database provider EBSCO International Inc, and will introduce you the brief outline of the database, basic searches and useful tools available in the database.

● No application needed! Anyone is welcome to participate.

⚠ There is a limited number of seats.
