

Gateway to Global Leadership

The Best Choice for Public Policy Studies in Japan

SCHOLARSHIPS

Over 90% of GRIPS students are on full scholarship

Full Scholarships available

Japanese Government (MEXT), ADB, IMF, World Bank, WCO, JICA etc.

Note: Scholarship availability and conditions vary by program.

Master's Programs in English

◆ Young Leaders Program (1 year)

Fostering future leaders of nations in Asia and other regions

◆ One-year Master's Program of Public Policy (MP 1)

Training young officials from government organizations and talented scholars with a multidisciplinary background in the field of public policy

◆ Two-year Master's Program of Public Policy (MP 2)

Training early career professionals and staff members from local and national governments, international organizations, and private companies to give them the fundamental skills needed for analysis and implementation of public policy

◆ Macroeconomic Policy Program (1 and 2 year programs)

Training a new generation of economic policy maker for the 21st century

◆ Public Finance Program (1 year)

Training future fiscal leaders in taxation and customs

◆ Maritime Safety and Security Policy Program (1 year)

Training future coast guard leaders for global level engagement

◆ Economics, Planning and Public Policy Program (1 year)

Training government officials to contribute to good governance and economic development in Indonesia

Ph.D. Programs in English

◆ Policy Analysis Program [5 years (MA. + Ph.D.)]

Training individuals in research and analysis of real world policy issues.(Public Economics, Development Economics, International Economics)

◆ GRIPS Global Governance Program(G-cube) [5 years (MA.+ Ph.D.)]

Equipping students to become 'leaders of leaders' of government, business, and international arenas. (International Development Studies, International Relations)

◆ Science, Technology and Innovation Policy Program (3 years)

Equipping government officials with the skills needed to design, implement and evaluate policies related to science, technology and innovation based on a scientific approach, and training other professions to expert level in the theory and practice of policy making

◆ Disaster Management Program (3 years)

Cultivating professionals who can educate researchers and take leadership in the planning and implementation of national and international strategy and water-related risk management policy

政策研究大学院大学

NATIONAL GRADUATE INSTITUTE
FOR POLICY STUDIES

Students
Voices (YouTube)

Admission info

